Fell Between Cars.

A stranger, carrying a valise, attempted to board a moving train at the L. & N. depot Wednesday evening, and fell between the platforms, the beam of the brake striking him, knocking him from under the train. He was a little dusty and his clothes were torn, but unhurt, and quietly got up and walked away without giving his name. The valise was cut into threads and four quart bottles of whisky, the contents, were smashed. He evidently was a man living in a local option precinct returning home.

Harry Larkin, son of Mr. J. W. Larkin, of this city, was knocked under a passenger train at the L. & N. passenger depot yesterday morning and had his left foot cut off.

Young Larkin was on the passenger train that arrives here from Cincinnati about 7:30 a. m. He jumped from the moving train striking a box car in a freight train standing on the next track. It knocked him back under the passenger train which passed over his left foot before he could recover himself from his perilous position. He was taken to the St. Joseph Hospital at Lexington, for treatment.

Mr. Larkin is employed in the concrete department of the L. N. Railroad. From all accounts it was his own carelessness that caused the accident.

Damage Suit Filed.

Chas. Watson, administrator of Samuel Watson, through his attorney John P. McCartney, of Flemingsburg, and McMillan & Talbott, of Paris, has filed suit in the Bourbon Circuit Court for $25,000 damages against the Louisville & Nashville Railroad.

The petition alleges that on the night of January 5, 1907, Samuel Watson, then employed by the said defendant company as car coupler, was killed in the local yards while engaged at his duties. Watson, the petition recites, was aboard a car being sidetracked, for the purpose of setting the brakes, when another section of cars was cut off and sent along the track with such force as to strike the car which Watson was aboard knocking him from the car, and, falling between the cars he lost his life by being ground under the wheels.

Negro Murderer Arrested Here.

An important arrest was made here Tuesday morning when Richard Lee, a negro, was surprised by officers at the camp of Pete Cain, who is operating a rock crusher five miles from Paris on the Lexington pike. Lee was a fugitive, being charged with having killed another negro at Stanford, Ky., three years ago. He has resided in Paris for more than a year, and has figured in several difficulties, his real identity not being known.

His presence here was tipped off to the officers by a negro from Stanford who went to Cincinnati Sunday on an excursion train. When the train arrived at the depot here Lee was recognized. The knowledge of his whereabouts brought Deputy Sheriff J. A. Hill, of Lincoln, to Paris on the early morning train and he, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff W. F. Talbott, went to the rock crusher armed with repeating shot guns. Lee was unaware of the presence of the officers till they were upon him and quietly surrendered. He was handcuffed and taken to Stanford on the 11 o'clock Louisville & Nashville train the same evening.

Says:

It has been my policy in the past to make the very best cold drinks and ices that can be made.

My present business is a demonstration of the fact that the people have appreciated my efforts.

I don't claim to make better drinks and better frozen goods than other merchants—I leave that for you to say—but what I do say is this: you can at all times get a Soda, Sundae, Phosphate or any soda fountain drink at my store that is just exactly as it should be.

Just received a large lot of Lyon's and Gudther's fine candies.

P. S. When you want Ice Cream Bricks that are right, try me.
